

Permits to climb the Half Dome Cable route are required to ascend the cable route on Half Dome on all Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal Holidays from May 21, 2010 to October 11, 2010.

Individual permits will be available for a $1.50 service fee through www.RECREATION.gov beginning March 1, 2010. Permits will be available for summer 2010 dates as follows:

For permit dates in:	Permits go on sale on:
May and June 2010	March 1, 2010 (7 am PT)
July and August 2010	April 1, 2010 (7 am PT)
September and October 2010	May 1, 2010 (7 am PT)

300 permits will be available for each date. Permits are not required at this time for ascending the cable route Monday – Thursday (except for federal holidays).

The following pages are a guide to the permit workflow so you will know what you need to do before hand. High demand is anticipated for these permits.

It is very important that you sign in to your Recreation.gov account before 7 am PT (or sign up for an account if you are new to this website).

IMPORTANT!

If you are already a member – click Sign In. If you have never signed up before, you must first Sign Up.

Recreation.gov will NOT hold your permits until you have successfully signed into your account. You should do this BEFORE the on-sale time of 7 am pacific time.

THE 2010 WHITE HOUSE EASTER EGG ROLL - APRIL 5, 2010 The White House Easter Egg Roll is a tradition that dates back to 1878. The event has grown from a few local children rolling eggs on the White House Lawn to a national event filled with live entertainment, sports, and interactive cooking demos. And of course the traditional rolling of Easter eggs. The Easter Egg Roll will promote healthy and active living and is designed for children 12 years of age and under. The 2010 White House Easter Egg Roll will be held on Monday, April 5, 2010. This year, tickets will be distributed through an on-line lottery. Tickets are free of charge. If you would like to attend this year's event please click the link below to apply for the on-line lottery.

The following screen shots will show you step by step how to get a permit to climb the Half Dome Cables. The process will become live at 7:00 am pacific time on March 1, 2010. These steps are provided to help you understand the process ahead of time.

STEP 1:

Click Here

The screenshot displays the Recreation.gov website. At the top, a navigation bar includes links for Home, Recreation, Camping, Day Use, Tours, Permits, Search by Map, and My Reservations & Account. Below the navigation bar, a banner image shows a snowy mountain range. A search sidebar on the left contains a 'Reserve Your Place Under the Stars' logo, a 'Looking for' dropdown menu, a 'State' dropdown menu, a 'Near' text input field, a 'Park or Facility name' text input field, and 'Camping dates' options (Specific or Range) with corresponding date and length of stay input fields. A 'Search' button is at the bottom of the sidebar. The main content area features a large image of the Obama family on the White House balcony, with a callout box pointing to it. To the right of this image is a section titled 'Yosemite Half Dome Permit Information' with a photo of Half Dome and a link for more information. Below the main image is a section titled '2010 WHITE HOUSE EASTER EGG ROLL' with a blue background. At the bottom right, there is a 'Spotlights' section with a photo of a yellow Easter egg.

Please ensure you have read the Safety Information prior to securing your reservation.

Do NOT attempt the ascent if:

• Storm clouds are in the area.

• The ground is wet (the cables and rock become very slick when wet; most accidents on the cables occur in wet conditions).

• The cables are not in place.

• Snow or ice is present. Be prepared for over the snow travel.
